

Who are the Friends of the Library?

The Brookfield Friends of the Library are members of the community who love our Library.

What do they do?

Our mission is to help the Library prosper and grow. We raise funds though membership dues and fundraising activities. We are not for profit, all proceeds are used to support Library needs. Recent examples include:

- The purchase of the new hightop table and chairs in the teen area, staff laptops;
- The Library's self-check machine;
- Quilting supplies for the Quiltmakers group at the Library;
- New magazine racks in Adult Services to showcase the Library's magazine collection.

Learn more about the Friends of the Library : Attend a meeting, read our Friends webpage, or contact us directly at friends@brookfieldpubliclibrary.info.

When are the meetings?

The Friends meet at the library on the second Wednesday of the month at 7 pm. All meetings are open to both Friends and the public at large.
