

Subject: 3rd Annual Taste of Brookfield @ Your Library: October 3, 2008

The Brookfield Public Library and its support group, the Friends of the Library, are excited to announce its third annual "Taste of Brookfield @ Your Library" fundraiser dinner, scheduled for Friday, October 3, 2008 at 6:30 pm.

As a vital business in the community, we invite you to be involved in this fundraiser by making a tax-deductible donation. For the past two years, Brookfield and other area businesses ranging from restaurants to electrical contractors participated in the Taste by doing things such as donating food, sponsoring the event with a cash donation, or by donating merchandise and gift certificates for the end-of-the-evening's silent auction. In exchange for your much-needed support, businesses will be spotlighted throughout the event via "generously underwritten or donated by" banners and signage. Thanks to local underwriting of the Taste, the Library will continue to be a solid resource for the citizens of Brookfield and the Friends will build on its long-term investment fund that will serve future generations of library users.

Friends of the Library, Library staff, and Library Trustees will be approaching local businesses and asking for participation in "A Taste of Brookfield @ Your Library" throughout the months of July and August. If you are already committed to donating to the event, please either fill out the enclosed card and return it to the Library or fill it out online at <http://www.brookfieldpubliclibrary.info/fundraising>. We hope you will join us to support the Brookfield Public Library.
